The Lotus Unseen

"The Lotus Unseen" is a collection of poems completed by the poet Li Man-Rui between 2021 and 2022. It is her first poetry collection, consisting of a series of letters written from the end of adolescence at eighteen or nineteen.

In these poems, Li Man-Rui attempts to mimic the voices of different characters to narrate experiences of life: innocent yet cruel children, masochistic lovers craving abuse, literature-addicted female students, innocent sex workers, and even just the 'ghosts' living in sensations. Sometimes, because they are denser, she exhausts every effort to depict the diverse scenes deposited in her eyes. Sometimes, they are just a whisper hidden in the transparent whispers of the void.

About the author

Li Man-Rui, born in October 2002 in Guangzhou, is currently studying Chinese Language and Literature at Jinan University. She writes unconventional horror novels and ghostly poetry.

Swallows Flying in the Sky

Using the backdrop of the "Shan Hai Jing", a world is created where deities and monsters coexist with humans. The fortunes and misfortunes of people are influenced by the capricious whims of the gods, and priestesses and deities establish a vast system to maintain world order and stability, subjecting those who attempt to disrupt the system to extremely brutal punishments.

A naive girl becomes a priestess and is tasked with caring for the most notorious criminal since the creation of the world by Pangu, setting the stage for the story.

ShiShiShi

This is a book created by nearly twenty artists from diverse backgrounds in Europe and Taiwan. Through both online meetings and face-to-face discussions in their respective clubs, using a decentralized approach to power, they explored topics related to history, media, aesthetics, and methodology.

From these discussions, they developed a framework and documented their essays and thoughts. At the end of this journey, what kind of book will this be, produced by the artists? An art book? A book about artists? What defines an art book? These questions are left for you to decide.
